

Due to the announcement made by the Government on 31st October 2020, a decision has been made to cancel all non-essential market trading until the end of this current period of lockdown.

Ross Market will operate Thursday's for essential traders only.

Saturday Markets are suspended until further notice.