FAQ

Any resident or person with a legitimate interest in the town can be a member of the Steering Group but if you own property affected by a proposal you'd have to declare an interest with respect to that site. You could make representation to the Group in relation to that site, but not to be part of decision making on that issue. Any input made by an individual on any matter could be deemed non-persuasive by consensus or majority.

The Steering Group is not now due to me... See more
